Jersey's Tourism Industry

Election for Senator - Wednesday 24th March 2004

JERSEY HOSPITALITY

ASSOCIATION

Our President, Robert Weston, is standing for election to this vacant Senatorial seat.

He has been involved in the Jersey Tourism Industry for over three decades. He is dynamic, hard-working and clear-thinking and obviously understands our industry. He has already achieved much for us, particularly during the last few difficult years.

Of the many possible examples that could be cited in this regard, the most important has been his deep involvement in the recent formation of the new Tourism Board which will, at last, permit tourism in Jersey to be run, to a major degree, by the Industry itself.

Robert Weston

Make no mistake. The result of this election WILL affect YOUR future. Be sure to have a say in it. Tourism needs a strong voice in the States Assembly; so you are urged to make every effort to

CAST YOUR VOTE ON WEDNESDAY

Please remember: if you fail to vote, you will have no right to complain afterwards if the wrong candidate is elected.
